Guideline related to providing an allowance of Rs.25,000/- for restoring the houses fit for habitation due to the comprehensive calamity effected from 21st November 2025

This guidance is issued for giving further instructions regarding the letter No. NDRSC/02/04/10 and dated 02.12.2025 issued under the title of giving an allowance of Rs.25,000/- for restoring the damaged houses fit for habitation due to the comprehensive disaster situation that has affected from 21st November 2025.

1. Eligibility for applying for Rs.25,000/- stipend

Due to any calamity on account of calamity effected from 21.11.2025

- Totally damaged houses
  - Partially damaged houses
  - Houses affected by minor flooding despite no house damage
- All of the above categories Eligible for this offer.

2. Ownership of house

While paying this allowance, the allowance should be given regardless of the ownership of the land. This stipend should also be given to permanent resident house owners, residents of estate houses, residents of rented houses, residents of unauthorized houses, residents of government houses and government registered children's homes, old age homes and residential centers for the disabled.

3. Basis of grant

- Allowance of Rs.25,000/- per housing unit affected by the calamity effected from November 21, 2025 should be given without damage assessment.
- Accordingly, if several families or individuals are residing in one housing unit, this allowance should be divided equally among all the families or individuals residing in the housing unit.
- Allowance for a house given on rental basis should be given only to the tenant. If several families or individuals live in a rented house, this allowance should be divided equally among those families or individuals.
- If the house owner lives in the same house with tenants or persons, this allowance should be divided equally between them.

4. Since this allowance is given only for this disaster due to the comprehensive disaster situation that has been affected from 21.11.2025, the entire amount of the allowance should be paid to all the housing units affected by the disaster at once. (This is not an advance.) Please assess the damage to the house and request the necessary provisions immediately.

I hereby submit the application form for requesting this allowance, as enclosed in Annexure No. 01.
